

CHRISTOS DOULIS JOINS H.C. WAINWRIGHT IN METALS & MINING INVESTMENT BANKING

NEW YORK, August 15, 2017 – H.C. Wainwright & Co., LLC (“HCW”), the leading investment bank focusing on capital markets and equity research in multiple growth sectors, is pleased to announce that Christos Doulis has joined the firm as a Director of Investment Banking. Mr. Doulis, who will be based in Toronto, will join the metals and mining group and will focus his coverage on precious and non-precious metals. HCW is an established leader in bought, underwritten and ATM transactions for metals and mining companies world-wide.

Mr. Doulis joins HCW from PI Financial where he was a Mining Analyst. He has over 20 years of experience in the metals and mining sector both as an investment banker and a research analyst, having worked at Gryphon Partners, Stonecap Securities, PI Financial, Blackmont Capital and National Bank Financial in Toronto.

HCW’s Chief Executive Officer, Mark Viklund, commented, “We are excited that Christos has chosen to join HCW to strengthen our leading position in the metals and mining sector. His broad range of experience and deep relationships within the sector will be invaluable to HCW as we continue to grow.”
